SETTLEMENT, SENATOR POMERENE'S FORECAST

Ohioan Optimistic Following Conference With Senator Lodge---Viscount Grey Objects to Equalization of Voting Power of U.S. and Great Britain in League of Nations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—"Speedy settlement of treaty differences" was predicted this afternoon by Senator Pomerene, Democrat, of Ohio, following a conference with Senator Lodge, Republican leader. Senator Pomerene said he could not discuss the details of the conference but he felt certain that the treaty issue would soon be settled.

Equalization of the voting power of the United States and the British empire in the league of nations as provided in the fourteenth and last reservation, adopted by a majority of the senate, was objected to by Viscount Grev, of Fallodon, before his retirement as British ambassador in Washington

As the special representative of the British government in this country, Viscount Grey based his objection on the grounds that the reservation would States under the league covenant. He informed Senator Hitchcock, leader of the administration in the treaty fight, that Canada and Australia would be certain to protest against such a reservation, even though it was acceptable Lenroot, Republican, of Wisconsin, was the author was coincident with the recent speech of Lloyd George, the British premier, in Wales, that Australia and other British dominions were entitled to a voice in the league of nations

Wirnings were sent out broadcast today against drinking suspicious liquors tonight. Despite the prohibition law and the efforts of the authorities, it was reported that saloon keepers and restaurant owners were preparing to "let loose a flood of booze." Some of the big hotel proprietors planned to distribute gifts of whiskey and wine to their patrons. It was contended that this would not be a viola tion of the law as the drink was to be given free and not sold. The whiskey and wines are from the private stocks of the hotels and were pur-

NEW YEAR'S MESSAGES TO THE REVIEW SOUND CRY FOR PEACE

The world's cry is for peace, Leaders in all walks of life sound this message as their predominant new year's wish. They plead for an ending of all strife. The Review has received New Year's messages from cabinet officers, senators, authors, artists, governors, city officials, labor leaders, sporting celebrities, actors and actresses and mony oth-

All express the hope of world happiness which can only come through world harmony.

The mesages follow: W. E. Wells, chairman of the Labor committee of the U. S. Fotters' association - "May we, through industrial and political peace and through patient and wise adjustment of delicate social Copplems measure up fully to the drugsnsibility of the world leadership that has fallen to America as her one great war idemnity,"

J. S. Hilbert, chairman of the Red Cross Home Service Civilian Relief-"The Home Service-Civilian Relief extends best wishes for the New Year and through our peacetime program expect to extend to the civilian population the same service that we extended to the soldier and sailor during the war. Throug this service we will undoubtedly make Fast Liverpool a better place to live in."

Mrs. Louis Steinfeld, chairman of the Tuberculosis and Health department of the East Liverpool Federation of Women's Clubs -"My greatest wish for the new year is that we may become more interested in the health problems of our community."

Mrs. O. C. Vodrey, president of the East Liverpool Federation of Women's Clubs-"May we enter upon the new year with a closer bond of fellowship and with a greater effort for the welfare of our community," Rev. Dr. D. W. MacLeod, past president of the East Liverpool Ministerial association- "As we cross the threshhold of a new year let us forget the shadows of the past and remember only the good we have gained; let us be faithful to the new year's chances for love. Out of the past come surgfing the ideals for which America was founded and it is only as we keep them lifted high that she can endure. Let us determine to be true to Ameribea; the ideals which make us loyal citizens will make us noble men and to be a true man is also to be a child of God." C. F. Goodwin, secretary of the U. S. Potters' association—'I wish that the year 1920 may bring to the community, state, nation and world a condition of health, happiness and prosperity and a true spirit of co-operation never before equalled."

James M. Coox, governor of Ohio- "We earnestly hope and confidently believe that the year 1920 will bring to us a renewal of the individual service for country and the spirit of unselfish sacrifice which enabled us to win the war, and which will bring solution of the not less grave problems now before us.

Hugh L. Nichols, chief justice of Ohio supreme court-"It is my fervent wish that all of the situations that have distresed us as a nation throughout 1919 shall quick Americanism in its loftiest con-ceptions shall thrive throughout the United States in 1920 and its great spirit permeate the whole world, that the supremacy of the law may be maintained in its fullest without abatement in the slightest degree of the humanitarian policy of our legislation and accompanied by the never ending search for the largest measure of industrial pustice in order that the blessings of liberty may be secured to ourselves and our posterity. Newton D. Baker, secretary of war-"My new year wish is that our country may have new and splendid opportunities for service to mankind and use them generously. May our own people grow in justice of judgment and generositp of purpose as befits the people of a country in its past services and in its present leadership Franklin K. Lane, secretary of the interior-"My new year's wish is that 1920 be a Lincoln year, a Lincoln year in which our people will learn to look at things through Lincoln's eyes-those kind, wise, steadfast, honest eyes-in which there was neither malice nor envy but a great sympathy and a noble common sense. Why cannot we make this 1920 a Lincoln year. Peyton C. March, chief of staff

United States army-"May there be a complete stamping out of red agitators and red agitation in this country, may there be adoption of a permanent military policy which will profit by the lessons we have learned in the world war, may there be a nation-wide belief in the permancy of the American form of government and in the periority of our own institutions -all these will make for peace

Champ Clark, "I have several wishes for the new year. One is that every American resolve on New Year's day to be just a little better American than exer before. Americans must be vigilant in order that they may not impair or lose their splendid heritage of freedom for which such men as Washington and Jackson fought and struggled. I wish that each of may tread the path of sanity, mod eration and patriotic watchfulness, bearing in mind the constitution, the law and the wise teachings of the founders of this great republic erected not for a day but for all time. Let us teach those who would destroy that they who touch the ark of our liberties shall perish. Lastily I wish that the president may speedily be restored to perfect (Continued on Page Two)

******* Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a won-der for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, brenchial asthma or winter coughs.

From the Novel of the Same Name by Charles Neville Buck The characters of the picture are those hardy mountaineers of eastern Kentucky, who, from time immemorial, have shown slight regard for man-made laws. They are the descendants of the hardy pioneers who blazed the trail from the shores of Virginia through the mountains of that State and Kentucky. They fought the treacherous savage and settled the "Blue Grass State." They made it possible for an empire to be founded that gives to us and our children that follow, a land that knows no counterpart for riches.

It is of such kind of men and women that "When Bearcat Went Dry" has to do, and needless to say a picture-play of unlimited entertainment qualities is provided.

But you are you, with your own little corner and your own little year to work in. If you get your own business in a little better shape, your own life arranged along more orderly lines, your own bank account built up a little, your own soul enlarged a little, you will have done your share of the big work. And if a hundred million or so of us will do the same by this time next TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY year, that "Reconstruction," now so vague and shadowy an idea, will have taken shape in marvelous achievement.

A MOVIE COIN.

The great national pastime seems to be attending the movies. At least the movie people consider their business of sufficient importance to warrant a demand for the minting of a 15-cent coin. The Ohio in skiffs. The National Association of the Motion Picture Industry has had two bills introduced in congress providing for such a coin.

As the motion picture business is run now, with the nickel show a thing of the dim past and the 15-cent show a present and home in Walnut street this evening. on the package. Without "Gude's" it perhaps a lasting blessing, much time is consumed at ticket booths by making change. Every patron is delayed a fraction or more of a minute. Multiply that lost time by the hundreds of thousands, the millions of people who attend motion picture shows, and are visiting their daughter, Mrs. John it is readily seen what vast amounts of valuable time are lost every day.

If there were a 15-cent coin, eager patrons could simply drop Alliance it in the box as they passed through the door to their favorite theatre. No waste of paper in the manufacture of tickets. No End pottery, were married by Rev. waste of time, just a steady stream of 15-cent pieces dropping Father Smythe on Dec. 28. melodiously into the ticket chopper's box.

Stomach Trouble Overcome and Sluggish Liver now acts well. Dreco Proved it's Merit.

Mrs. Gordon Davish of Coke Otto, Route 7, near Hamilton, Ohio, has this to say through her mother. "I am sending my mother to get some Dreco, for it has done me so much good and I want her to take it also. I have received untold benefits by taking this great remedy.

"I suffered from awful backaches and pains in my side and limbs. I was very nervous so that I could not sleep much. My stomach was deranged so that my food did not digest but nauseated me, filled me with gas and I had terrible headaches.

'Soon after taking Dreco I noticed that my bowels began to act regular. My nerves quieted down so that my sleep was sound and restful. pains in my back and limbs soon stopped; those aches in my side soon stop-My appetite increased and I'd eat lots of things I could not eat before because they disagreed with me. I am now doing my household work with ease and I do not get tired as before. Dreco is great medicine and I'd never recommend a medicine to any one till I knew what it would do."

Thousands of women have taken Dreco with remarkable results. It eems to strengthen their delicate organs, giving them renewed strength and perfect health.

All good druggists now sell Dreco and it is highly recommended in East Liverpool by Flick's Drug Store, Fifth and Market street.

Gold Dust Barker, the despoiler of women, gave Joan Gray just ten minutes to choose between himself and "the crowd." In a moment of abandoned despair she flung herself into the costume of the dancing girls of Gold Dust Barker's hell hole of the Yukon and offered herself to the highest bidder-praying that there might be one decent man among the crowd. The bidding dwindled to Gold Dust Barker and Jim Blood, the Cur, a drunken outcast. Who won?

Famous For Its Marvelous Motor

Many Choose the New Chandler Coupe

THE Chandler Coupe has quickly attained popularity. It makes instant appeal to those desiring the very best in closed car construction.

It is an unusual car, the Chandler Coupe, handsome in its design, luxuriously furnished and lustrous in finish. It seats three persons, or four when the roomy auxiliary chair is used, and seats them in perfect comfort on deep cushions. The upholstery is of silk plush, the fittings of dull silver finish.

Automatic window lifts permit just such adjustment of the windows as weather or wish may dictate.

The Chandler Coupe is mounted on the one standard Chandler chassis, famous for its mechanical excellence and its really marvelous motor.

"Y" FIVE READY FOR COLLEGIANS

Final Practice Is Held Prepa- by Colonel Ben W. Hough, former ad-Strong Wooster College cial aid for the Delaware Y. M. C. A. until March 1921, has been success-

After nearly a two weeks' period of inactivity Watkins' Y. M. C. A. tossers will get back into action next Friday night against the undeniably strong Wooster college five. The local basketeers have staged their final practice session and although they express confidence in their ability they are not at all certain as to the outcome of the engagement this week end.

When they booked the college floor men here, Managers Springer and Roush asserted that, according to all indications at the present time, the attraction would not likely be surpassed at any time during the remainder of the season.

Adding to the interest already shown in the approaching conflict is the an-nouncement that Philip Weamer, a former East Liverpool lad, is playing center for the collegians and is claimed to be a regular bear at the job This fact alone will draw many fans to the game to renew acquaintances with the tall, lean chap who left the city when he was but a youngster. Epeedy "Goat" Fulton, Broderick, all-Ohio fullback, are two other stars with the visitors from the college town. Broderick on the floor is just the same Broderick that played on the gridiron. His work with the college quintet has marked him as one of the most clever forwards in collegiate circles this season.

Owing to the fact that all evenings at the Y. M. C. A. between today and the evening of the game are filled the local tossers will have no more practice this week.

President of the Universal Film Company

HAVE been for many years a producer of moving pictures. I produced the first big picture ever made in this country and have made many of the most successful ones-which means the most artistic. During this time, I have seen the art of the photodrama improve with almost every production, due to the increasing experience and genius of the talented people of the Universal organization. I wish to say, however, that in all this time I have not known a more enthralling picture than the one announced herewith.

BLIND HUSBANDS

is the story of a neglected wife whom an unscrupulous man endeavors to separate from her husband. A simple plot, no doubt, yet once you see whither it is leading you would not take your eyes from the screen for anything in the world-for the artistry of its telling, the gripping realism of the situations, the flawless acting and the superb staging of "BLIND HUSBANDS" are the most remarkable that you have ever seen in pictures. I personally guarantee that "BLIND HUSBANDS" will give you the most tremendous hour you have ever known in photodrama entertainment. See it without fail.
